

Event Ideas and Guidelines

Before and During the Event:

- Select your Teal Ribbon Denim Day date. The last Friday in September is our National Teal Ribbon Denim Day in coordination with Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month. If this date is not convenient for you, please select a date that best suits your needs.
- Add your name on the display poster as your team's coordinator. Please add your alternate date, if desired. The date card (included) can be placed with the enclosed sign. The sign is also available online, both with and without a specified date.
- Join us online by creating a team page. You can check out your team's progress, send out emails, and visit other team pages.
- Spread the word via email, newsletters, and reprints of event materials. All event materials are available online for your use. Feel free to create and have fun!
- Distribute teal ribbon pins and ovarian cancer information to all participants.
- Generate Excitement by hosting an activity, sending out reminders, or setting up a team bulletin board.
- Collect Donations. Make checks payable to Teal Denim Day. Participants may also donate online using your team page.
- Donation receipts are available online. Download and distribute donation receipts as needed.

After the Event:
